RE: United States v. Malik McCollum
21 Cr. 733 (AT)

Dear Judge Torres:

I write to respectfully request a three-week adjournment of the sentencing proceeding in the above-captioned case, which is currently scheduled for April 16, 2024, at 2:00p.m. The Government does not oppose this application.

Last week, I received Dr. Edward Fernandez's mitigation report, which reflects his evaluations of Mr. McCollum, his review of records relevant to Mr. McCollum's personal background and mental health, and his interviews with some of Mr. McCollum's family members. I require time to review the report with Mr. McCollum before finalizing my sentencing submission and a plan for his eventual reentry. Accordingly, I respectfully submit that a brief, three-week adjournment of sentencing is warranted.<sup>1</sup>

I thank the Court for its consideration of this application.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew John Dalack, Esq.

GRANTED. Sentencing is adjourned to May 7, 2024, at 2:00 p.m. Defendant's sentencing submission is due on April 23, 2024. The Government's submission is due on April 30, 2024.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 3, 2024
New York, New York

ANALISA TORRES
United States District Judge
